THE EDITORS DESK

Welcome to a very belated quarterly issue of the Upshaw Family Journal. Instead of converting to an annual format, I have decided to remain with our existing quarterly format which will allow me to manage the staging and typing at more reasonable time levels and which will be consistent with our previous issues. Please note that, in the interest of continuity, Vol VI of the UFJ will be for the year of 1979, etc., and I do plan to eventually be on a current schedule.

My delay in attending to our schedule has simply been caused by time required in other areas and I'm certain all would agree that the present living generation, including ourselves, should have precedence. Ashley is now six, active in dancing and cheerleading; Robert is nine, active in scouting, football, and soccer, and with Pam and myself, our entire family is involved in Christian activities which have priority in our lives. In addition to this, we've spent the last several months finishing our basement into a five room terrace apartment for my in-laws, who now live with us. Our family is very active and all of us greatly appreciate your kind patience.

This issue contains some interesting new material from English and Colonial sources, Madison and Morgan Counties in Georgia, and early Virginia. The elusive Forrester Upshaw is found living in Georgia in the 1820s and we find that there is no factual basis for the traditional Abel Upshaw, but that Jeremiah Upshaw does appear, by circumstantial evidence, to be the immigrant progenitor of the Upshaw family in America. Research will be contracted for in England in several weeks to ascertain the Upshaw immigrant and father of William Upshaw of Essex County, Virginia. I hope you enjoy this issue and find it profitable in your research.

NOTES AND NEWS

Mr. W. Roy Upshaw of Waco, Texas, gives us the sad news that his wife passed away on November 13, 1979. The following article is from the Waco Tribune-Herald, November 15, 1979:

Mrs. Roy Upshaw

Mrs. Roy (Marie) Upshaw, 71, of 233 Rockford died Tuesday afternoon (13 Nov 1979) in a local hospital.

Services will be at 11:30 a.m. today at Wilkirson and Hatch Chapel, the Rev. Boyce Vardiman officiating. Burial will be in Waco Memorial Park.

Mrs. Upshaw was born in Lindsey, Okla., and was married in 1954. She was a Methodist. Survivors include her husband.

Mrs. Roy (Marie) Upshaw

Mrs. Roy (Marie) Upshaw, age 71, of 233 Rockford died at 6:05 p.m. Tuesday in a local hospital.

Funeral services: 11:30 a.m. Thursday, at Wilkirson-Hatch Chapel, Rev. Boyce Vardiman officiating, burial in Waco Memorial Park.

Survivors: her husband, Roy Upshaw; one nephew; two nieces; one sister-in-law; one aunt.

I extend sincere condolences to Cousin Roy Upshaw in this time of his loss. I've come to know Cousin Roy rather well through the UFJ and to recognize that he is a fine gentleman of deep security in Christ; it is well with him.

Jefferson Davis Upshaw IV

Jefferson Davis Upshaw III (Editor's note: correctly, "IV") and Elizabeth Ann Lewis wed. (1 March 1980).

Miss Elizabeth Ann Lewis and Jefferson Davis Upshaw III were married March 1 at First United Methodist Church in Birmingham. Dr. Denson Franklin officiated at the ceremony and music was presented by Dr. James H. Cook, organist.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wheeler Lewis, Sr., of Mountain Brook, and Dr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis Upshaw, Jr., of Memphis, Tenn.

Bridesmaids included Cristi Upshaw, Tuscaloosa, and ushers included Walker Upshaw, brother of the groom, of Memphis.

(contributed by Mr. J. D. Upshaw and Mrs. B. J. Barrier, who note that this is J. D. Upshaw IV, not III as stated in article; newspaper and date of article unknown).

Charles Calvin Upshaw, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Alonzo Cook III announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ellen Cook, to Charles Calvin Upshaw, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Calvin Upshaw. A June 30 wedding at Saint Luke's Episcopal Church is planned. (The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, May 6, 1979).

General L. Upshaw, Sr.

Mr. General L. Upshaw, Sr., of 2142 Cloverdale Dr., SE passed June 18, 1979. Funeral announced later. M. W. Dollar, Inc.

Cheryl Upshaw

Cheryl and Gary,
believing that marriage is ordained of God,
have chosen the seventh day of July,
Nineteen hundred and seventy-nine to be married for time and all eternity in the Arizona Temple.

We wish to extend our love and appreciation to our parents:

Mr. and Mrs. Berl F. Upshaw
and

Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Huish

(a wedding announcement generously shared by Mrs. Berl F. Upshaw of her daughter Cheryl Upshaw and Gary Huish; Cheryl (Upshaw) Huish's Upshaw lineage will be found under "Member's Roster" elsewhere in this issue).

Olin Eugene Upshaw

"Rosebud Money" would buy anything in the building at Upshaw's Store at Rosebud, Ga., for approximately half a century - 1908 until 1958.

That was all but 38 years in the life of 88-year-old Olin Eugene Upshaw, who still lives in Gwinnett County with his wife of more than 69 years.

They have a lot of memories about Rosebud Money, which was originated by him and his father.

"During hard times (depression years), a lot of people lived on that money," recalled Upshaw, a man prominent in his community, county and area of the state for more years than most people live.

That has been from his mid teens, when he went into business with his father.

"The store was established in 1894 by my father, P. C. Upshaw. Rosebud's own money didn't start until about 1908. (O. E. Upshaw was between 16 and 17 at the time).

Upshaw's wife, the former Mabel Davis, whom he married in 1911, built up the largest millinery business in this part of the country, according to her husband. Mrs. Upshaw, now 87, is ill with arthritis. "We'll be married 70 years next Jan. 25," said Upshaw.

Another first for the Rosebud store was sending out direct mail advertisements by postal card. "Every two weeks, we had 1,000 printed and mailed out to customers," recalled Upshaw.

His younger sister, Frances Upshaw Barrett, 72, visiting here with the Upshaws' daughter, Eugenia, from Nashville, Tenn. where they both reside, commented: "It was so crowded in the store, you couldn't see across it, after those cards would go out."

(contributed by Charles B. Upshaw, Jr., M. D., from the Gwinnett Daily News, March 20, 1980; the above information abstracted by Ted O. Brooke from this very interesting article).

"Barbados served as a recruiting ground of settlers for other colonies in the Carribean and on the continent. From 1650 to 1680 nearly 30,000 whites left the island to establish in the colonies of Antigua, Montserrat, Virginia, New York, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Jamaica, Surinam, and Carolina. This was the largest population movement during the 17th century. It included all classes, the large planter, the small planter, the 'yeoman farmer', the landless freeman, the indentured servant, and the Negro slave."

The Curren-Briggs Colonial Records Index; compiled by Mr. Noel Curren-Briggs, MA, FSG, Essex, England. This index contains the names of about 50,000 persons from unpublished sources in England and Virginia for the period 1560-1690.

The main sources include Town Depositions (Pro Class C.24), High Court of Admiralty Libels and Dispositions (Pro Class HCA 13, 24, and 30), Exchequer Port Books (Pro Class E.190), PCC and locally proved wills, extracts from over 400 Parish registers, Virginia County records (mainly York County), Virginia Colonial records project surveys, notarial records of Rotterdam and Amsterdam, Bristol lists of indentured servants for the Colonies, and a large collection of miscellaneous MSS relating to the Colonies. There is, in addition to the main index, a shipping list of more than 400 ships known to have been engaged in transatlantic voyages between 1607 and 1685, with the names, where known, of owners, masters and merchants, dates and destinations and miscellaneous data.

Please note that all the information reported by Mr. Currer-Briggs was also reported by Mr. Francis Leeson of the Surname Archive, which report is following, although this duplicated information is only presented here from the Currer-Briggs report, as it is slightly more detailed. Mr. Leeson's source for this information was given as Genealogical Gleanings in England, by Henry F. Waters, 1907. Mr. Leeson notes that the "following mentions of the surname-sound occur in wills proved in the Prerogative Court of (the Archbishop of) Canterbury (known as 'PCC'), London, selected and abstracted by Henry F. Waters for the light they throw, either directly or indirectly, on New England families of the 17th century". Mr. Currer-Briggs also comments that "all of these references (except the last to Edward Upcher) are tied in with the families from Dedham, Essex, who migrated to Dedham and Ipswich, Massachusetts".

Nicholas Upsall, and Mrs. Dorothy Upsall, of Dorchester, Dorset, from Plymouth on the 'Mary and John' (Thomas Chubb, Master), 20 Mar 1630, with 140 passengers from the counties of Dorset, Somerset, and Devon under the patronage of the Reverend John White. She arrived at Nantasket 30 May and all the passengers settled at Mattapan, which was renamed Dorchester. There is no passenger list, but the names have been supplied 'according to evidences from contemporary authorities'. (pg 91). This emigrant is also mentioned in the Topographical Dictionary of 2885 English Emigrants to NE, by C. E. Banks, 1963, pg 32, the authority quoted being the Banks MSS in the Library of Congress. Toward the northwest angle of the enclosure . . . is a stone - a huge block of slate, smooth on one of it's sides, inscribed thus:

ABOUT 70 YEARS
DIED YE OF AUGVST 1666

Among the early citizens of Boston, he was a man of note, mainly for his charitable disposition. Because he opposed the course pursued towards the Quakers, and did all he could to alleviate the distress of those of that persuasion who suffered persecution, he in turn became a martyr. His crowning offence was bribing the keeper of Boston jail to supply with food two Quaker women who were imprisoned, and would otherwise have starved to death. For this, he was fined 20 pounds (no inconsiderable amount two centuries ago) and banished from the colony. He went to Rhode Island and remained six years, until Governor Endicott had ceased to rule. Returning to Boston, he furnished a room in his house for the free use of the Quakers and many were the Friends who enjoyed his hospitality. He was possessed of quite a large property, his estate covering in 1637 the territory now bounded by Hanover and Richmond streets and the old water line, joining the terminus of the two thoroughfares. On this territory was his house, long known as the "Old Red Lyon" Inn. His name stands twenty-third on the list of the original members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company. He was also a member of the church and, as might be expected, exerted considerable influence over the affairs of the infant town.

Grantor: William Griffith, Sheriff of Madison County, Ga.

Grantee: Haston Upshaw of Madison County, Ga.

Description: "This indenture made this the eighth day of July in the year of our Lord 1826 between William L. Griffith, Sheriff of said County of the one part, and Haston Upshaw of said County and State of the other part. Witnesseth that whereas an execution issues from the honourable the Superior Court of Elbert County bareing(sic) date the third day of April 1826 in favor of Peter Forkner(sic) against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Forister Upshaw for the sum of \$500 besides interest and cost directed to (all and suing ullen?) the Sheriff of said State. Which execution I levied upon 200 acres of land as the property of Forester Upshaw, which said land I did advertise in the Georgia Journal, a newspaper in said State agreeable to law to be sold on the first Tuesday in June 1826 and by virtue of the powers vested in me by law as Sheriff of said County I did expose to publick(sic) outcry at the courthouse door in said County the aforesaid tract of 200 acres of land, be the same more or less, on the first Tuesday in June 1826 when Haston Upshaw, being the highest and best bidder, the land was knocked off to him, the said Haston Upshaw, for the sum of \$3.12 $\frac{1}{4}$ (sic). Now this indenture for this witnesseth that by virtue of the powers vested in me by law as aforesaid and in consideration of the aforesaid sum of \$3.12 $\frac{1}{2}$ (sic) to me in hand paid by the said Haston Upshaw before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do grant, bargain, and sell and by these presents hath granted, bargained, and sold unto the said Haston Upshaw, his heirs, and assigns the aforesaid tract of 200 acres of land, be the land more or less, which tract of land to the said Haston Upshaw, his heirs and assigns, I do warrant and defend against the claim of all and every person or persons whatsoever so far as I am bound by law to do and no further. In witness whereof I, William L. Griffith, Sheriff as aforesaid, have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the day and year above written."
